The Board made motion to approve and signed by Wilson, 2nd by Hall.

REPORTS ON:

ARBUCKLE/DEARINGER TILE

Ryan presented to the Board that he spoke with some landowners and presented pictures on the screen that the soil is in bad shape and the Tile needs reconstruction. Ryan stated that Marvin Veatch said removing some of the trees did help. Ryan also stated That Mark and Marvin asked if we could pursue getting a Bond to finance the reconstruction saying this would ease the financial burden on the landowners. Aulbach asked Ryan what he recommended, Ryan recommended looking into a bond and going with the engineering. Grant asked Ryan to get some estimates for any possible reconstructions so he knows the amount of a Bond we would need.

WEBB/WILLIS/MULL TILE- FLATROCK RIVER OPEN

Ryan presented pictures and videos on the screen to the Board. Ryan stated this Tile in need of reconstruction from 200 south to the new lower section on Dierckman’s. Ryan also stated that we need to work on the Flatrock river to help alleviate the issues with all the other drains. He stated he spoke with Decatur County and they will be having a meeting in June he will attend. The Board asked Ryan to get an ordinance together with Grant for pursuit of a Flatrock District Commission. To help with funding shortfall on the Flatrock River Drain.

JOHN GAHIMER TILE

Ryan stated to the Board they got surveys done and waiting on engineering.

With nothing else to come before the Board, the meeting was adjourned by Jarman, 2nd by Wilson. Motion carried.
